Call for Research Proposal for Working Papers

From

Dr. Debasis Bhattacharya
Professor of Statistics & Chair Professor of
A.K.Dasgupta Centre for Planning & Development
Visva-Bharati

Dear Friends,

The present global scenario prevailing throughout the world depicts that COVID 19 has become a pandemic and it appears as a threat to the human society in respect of life and death, health, economy, economic growth, livelihood of people, inflation, production etc. The Centre wishes to undertake research work in certain areas of the above mentioned threats to develop future plans according to the need of the time and place.

The impact of this pandemic is yet to be realized but it is possible to predict the impact of its damage. Along with THE prediction of impact of the damage due to COVID 19 on different areas of human society, now it is necessary to make a future plan for possible actions and or interventions so that the damage done so far could be assessed and arrested. Furthermore, efforts should be initiated to put the economy back on tract. Keeping an eye on all of the above points A.K.Dasgupta Centre for Planning and Development,

Visva-Bharati is inviting proposal to undertake research work in the areas mentioned below.

The topics on which the research proposals to be submitted are:

1. Threat on Rural economy & Livelihood in rural India due to COVID 19: Prediction and Future plans.
2. Health crisis arising out of COVID 19 outbreak in India: Local Level Planning & Policies

The selection of research proposal will be done by the members who are experts in different areas of economics, social science, health science, statistics and others. The selected proposal will be offered to work in collaboration with A.K.Dasgupta Centre. Kindly note that no direct financial support will be given to the selected proposal. The Centre reserves the right to reject a proposal without entertaining any question whatsoever.
